with him today. He has three children and two superstar grandchildren, and it's my understanding that another addition will be added to this group.

BILL is a hardworking lawyer and a businessman from upstate New York. He is a job creator. At the former Air Force base in Plattsburgh, he was able to bring some creative activity, bring together businesses, and as a result of that, was able to bring 2,000 jobs to the great State of New York, most of them from Canada.

He comes here today as a supporter of education, as a supporter, naturally, of jobs, as a supporter of making this country all that she can be, and certainly as someone who would like to see all American citizens have access to health care, as most of you, I know,

So, BILL, we will be working with you and working for you. Congratulations. Our heartbeat is heavy for your victory, which we know is the Congress victory and our Nation's victory.

Mr. KING of New York. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. RANGEL. I yield to my friend, the minority leader of the State of New York, and welcome him joining in with us, Congressman Peter King.

Mr. KING of New York. I thank Chairman RANGEL for yielding.

Speaking on behalf of myself and on behalf of the entire New York Republican delegation of myself and Congressman Lee—a very powerful twoman delegation against 27—seriously, Congressman OWENS, it is a privilege to welcome you to the House of Representatives.

Thank you for your years of service to your country. We look forward to working with you. You will find, whether it's 27-2 or 18-13-or whatever it was a few years ago-we in the New York delegation do work across the aisle and work with each other, and I wish you the very best.

Mr. RANGEL. My colleagues, Congressman BILL OWENS.

Mr. OWENS. Thank you. Like all of my speeches, it will be brief.

Madam Speaker, I am honored to be here with you all today and to join in continuing our effort to build a better, stronger America.

This is a proud day for me and my family, but it is also a sad day for our country. The shooting at Fort Hood last night that claimed the lives of 13 fine Americans is a stunning reminder of how quickly the peace we enjoy here at home can turn to violence and how much we rely on our brave men and women to keep us free from harm. My thoughts and prayers are with the families of the victims and with our soldiers to whom we owe our safety and our freedom.

I would like to thank my family for being with me and for standing behind me every step of the way.

To my wife, Jane; my three children, Tara, Jenna, and Brendan, and their spouses; and my three grandchildren, Caroline, Tommy, and Tess, I know that I would never have made it without you, and I am grateful for your support and for all the laughs we had along the way.

I most especially want to thank the people of New York's 23rd Congressional District, whose work I begin today. Conscious of the challenges that face us, I am eager to join my colleagues in finding bipartisan solutions to health care, energy, our farm crisis, and getting our economy back up and

My family and I came to Plattsburgh when I was transferred to Plattsburgh Air Force Base. When I left the Air Force, we decided to stay and make it our home, which we've done, but I remain committed to serving my country and my community. That's why I have tried throughout my life in upstate New York to do the right thing by my community, and it is the reason that I ran for Congress.

□ 1315

I am proud to begin a new chapter of service to my country and remain hopeful that if we can continue seeking bipartisan solutions to the problems that face us, we can build a brighter future for our children and grandchildren. I pledge to work hard every day, and I am honored to serve each of my constituents and to move the country and my district forward.
